FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

McDonald Racer #37 teams-up with "Parent Project Muscular Dystrophy" for 7th Annual Jumping Jack Fundraising Event

CENTENNIAL, Colo., June 1, 2010 – The McDonald Air Race Team, a T-6 Gold Class National Air Race competitor, warms-up for the 2010 September races by offering air ride to Parent Project Muscular Dystrophy silent auction fundraiser: The 7th Annual Jumping Jack for Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy Golf Tournament and Silent Auction.

The 7th Annual Jumping Jack for Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy Golf Tournament and Silent Auction will be hosted on June 28th, 2010 at the Ranch Country Club. The event raises money for Parent Project Muscular Dystrophy and their efforts to find the cure for muscular dystrophy.

About the McDonald Air Race Team:

Since 2000, the McDonald Air Race team has been competing annually in the National Air Race Championships. They have continued to move up through the race classes and currently compete in the T6 Gold Class. The crew is comprised of expert mechanics, skilled pilots, race strategy engineers, photographers and business professionals among others. For more information, please visit: www.T6RaceTeam.com.

About Parent Project Muscular Dystrophy

Parent Project Muscular Dystrophy (PPMD) is the largest nonprofit organization in the United States focused entirely on Duchenne. PPMD takes a comprehensive approach in the fight against Duchenne—funding research, raising awareness, promoting advocacy, connecting the community, and broadening treatment options. For more information, please visit: www.parentprojectmd.org.

About the National Championship Air Races & the Reno Air Racing Association:

In September 2010, the National Championship Air Races and Air Show will return for its 47th year with six classes of racing aircraft and a first-class air show including some of the world's top pilots and aerobatic performers. Recognized as the "World's Fastest Motor Sport", the annual event regularly attracts 250,000 to 300,000 attendees. For more information, please visit: www.AirRace.org.
