National Championship Air Race Pilot John Zayac Visits Utah Valley University (UVU)

John Zayac, pilot of the McDonald Racer #37, a T-6 gold class national air race competitor, plans to visit race sponsor Utah Valley University on his way to the 47th Annual National Championship Air Races in Reno, Nevada. This visit will allow students, staff and the general public an opportunity to see the actual race aircraft and ask any questions they may have regarding the aircraft's maintenance, the pilot's aviation career and the National Championship Air Races.
